

Gary Giddings—Cindi Hiltz—Dick Richards

After graduating from PCHS, Cindi went to Michigan State University for two years. She left MSU to work at her uncle's stock brokerage firm and then reconnected with and married Gary Giddings, one of our classmates, in 1966.

"Gary and I were happily married for 32 years, had two daughters, and lived a stereotypical suburban lifestyle. During those years, I was a stay-at-home mom until I worked as an interior decorator and was the primary decorator for a home featured in SE Michigan's Homearama. I owned and operated Cindi's Custom Interiors, which primarily served clients who lived in Oakland and Macomb counties. Unfortunately, Gary passed away in 1997, at age 52, after a courageous bout with leukemia."

"I married Dick Richards, our class president, in November 2000. Sadly Dick passed away in May 2001 at age 56. During that short time, we bought a cottage on a lake in Brighton, MI, which I enjoy especially when my daughters and four grandchildren are around."

"My life today revolves around my grand children and the three grand children I inherited from John Camp. John and I recently celebrated our 9th anniversary together; we travel and enjoy reading, fine dining and spending time with family and friends."
